

Balcones Country Club and PGA Junior League

PGA Junior League Golf is for boys and girls ages 7-13*. The program welcomes players of all abilities who are golf members of Balcones Country Club. Teammates work together and contribute to their performance in the game. This will be a fun, exciting and engaging experience that encourages skill and character development. Participants will receive coaching from PGA Professionals Mark and Myron Klement who are coaches at the Balcones Golf Academy and will serve as co-captains of two teams. Each team consist of fourteen players.

Try-outs for PGA Junior League at Balcones Country Club will be from February 25 - March 5 (see additional handout for try-out schedule and dates). All juniors who are interested in becoming a potential team member will need to attend one of these try-outs.

Registration for the Balcones PGA Junior League teams will occur after try-outs and after a determination has been made of each junior's ability and skill level by co-captains Mark and Myron Klement. Parents will be forwarded the necessary website information and passwords if their kid(s) are selected to the Balcones Country Club teams. If your junior is not selected for this year's team, he/she will be allowed to participate in scheduled practices with the teams at a nominal charge.

Total Program Fee
$200.00

Amount Due Upon Registration
$75.00

PGA Junior League Golf at Balcones Country Club includes six games along with seven organized practice sessions during the regular season. In addition, participants will receive a team jersey and bag tag.

For additional information about PGA Junior League and the Balcones Country Clubs teams, log on to pgajlg.com and balconescountryclub.com.

*A player must not be 14 years of age by July 31, 2017 to be eligible this year and must be a current golf member in good standing at Balcones Country Club. Players age 6 and above will be considered at try-outs.